March 30, 2004

Dear Rabbi Krinsky,

In response to your letter of March 25th regarding the Holocaust Victims Assets Litigation, here is the clarification of the four questions mentioned there:

1. Chabad of Slovakia expects to serve a total of approximately 800 people during the calendar year of 2004.
2. Of that number, approximately one third were victims of the Nazis. This is the primarily elderly group, which, of course gets smaller each year. If we add those who were Hidden Children, the number grows somewhat. Those who belong to the younger age-groups are children or grandchildren of Holocaust survivors.
3. The total program costs for calendar year 2004 for Chabad of Slovakia is projected at 264,764 US dollars.
4. If we divide that number by the approximately 800 individuals served, it comes out to a per person cost of 331 US dollars.

Yours sincerely,

Rabbi Baruch Myers
