I am pleased to be able to support the United Jewish Organization of Williamsburg's (UJO) application for an Allocation from the funds available to the Claims Conference Successor Organization. The UJO is a highly respected human services and community development agency in Williamsburg, Brooklyn. For the past three decades, it has been the main provider of human services and is also a leading advocate for the housing and employment need for thousands of Williamsburg residents.

We have worked closely with the United Jewish Organizations of Williamsburg on several different projects. They have pioneered new initiatives for senior citizens. The high level of community participation and the quality of professional services is truly impressive.

Their proposed program for senior services is greatly needed. By supporting those efforts you will make a valuable contribution to increasing the opportunities for the senior population.
