-----X MEMORANDUM & ORDER

ORDER POSTPONING THE TIME FOR FILING CLAIM FORMS IN THE CLAIMS RESOLUTION PROCESS FOR
DEPOSITED ASSETS TO AUGUST 31, 2001

By an Order of February 5, 2001, I provided that all Deposited Assets claim forms must be submitted within six months of that date. Special Masters Volcker and Bradfield have advised me that over 26,000 of such forms have been timely submitted. My Order of July 30, 2001, provided that the 580,000 Responses by Class Members to the six page Initial Questionnaire circulated to the Class in 1999 shall be treated as timely submitted Deposited Assets Class claim forms for purposes of the Claims Resolution Process thus assuring that essentially all those who have expressed an interest in making a claim to Deposited Assets will be included in the Claims Resolution Process.

Nevertheless, Special Masters Volcker and Bradfield have advised me that volunteer help centers and the call center for Deposited Assets claims have received numerous inquiries from people still wishing to file claims. In order to accommodate these interested potential claimants without interfering with the process for resolving Deposited Assets Claims, on the recommendation of Special Masters Volcker and Bradfield, I am extending the final date for filing of Deposited Asset claims to August 31, 2001.

SO ORDERED:

Edward R. Korman

United States District Judge Dated:
